DRUNK DRIVING SENTENCES HIT BY GRAND JURY

PENALTY TOO LIGHT SAY JURORS

MARTINEZ, Sept. 17.—Belief that judges in this county are too lenient in imposing sentences for the sale and transportation of liquor, and "especially for reckless driving due to the use of alcohol" was expressed by the county grand jury in its report submitted today to Superior Judge A. B. McKenzie.

The jury declared that a fine of $100 in cases of reckless driving due to the use of alcohol is "inadequate" and declared that license suspension should be made effective for at least 30 days. A second offense, the report recommends, should lead to revocation of the license.

As a means of curbing this type of law violations the jury recommends "the suspension of the license in such cases in addition to a heavy fine."

County Jail Scored

The jury was discharged by the court after submission of its report, which Judge McKenzie declared was "satisfactory." The jury had been impaneled for 10 months.

The jury report declares that the county jail is "dangerously overcrowded" and recommends that the board of supervisors build an addition as soon as possible. It also declares that the court house is overcrowded and recommends building of a Hall of Records. The county library was found to be administered efficiently, although hampered by overcrowding and recommends that when the Hall of Records is built, that quarters be provided (Continued on Page 8)

MRS. PANTAGES BLAMES OTHER MOTORIST IN FATAL CRASH

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 17.—UP—Haggard, but speaking with apparent confidence, Mrs. Lois Pantages denied at her second degree murder trial today that she was intoxicated when her automobile collided with that of Juro Rokumoto and caused his fatal injury.

The millionaire theater man's wife was dressed conservatively in a black silk dress and wore a black felt hat when she took the witness stand. In answering the questions propounded by her chief counsel, Max Steuer, she addressed her replies directly to the jury of seven men and five women.

"I did not have a single drink of intoxicating liquor the day of the accident," was almost her first statement.

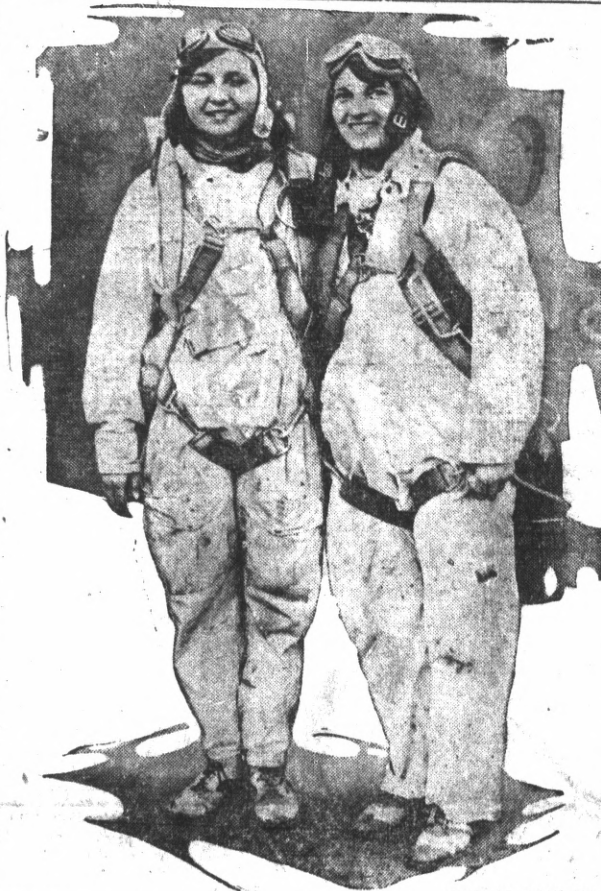

Blames Dead Man

The state not only contends that she was under the influence of liquor but that she was driving in a wild fashion on the wrong side of the street. But Mrs. Pantages bore out testimony of defense witnesses by laying the blame for the crash upon Rokumoto. She said that he attempted a left hand turn without warning, putting his car in her path.

"I was not drunk," she said, calmly as she made a general denial of the accusations against her. "I tried desperately to turn the wheel of my car to avoid the collision I turned into Sunset boulevard and there was a car in front of me. It tried as hard as possible to get into the middle of the road."

"Half way to Serjano street (street crossing Sunset) a car on my right tooted its horn and I pulled over to my left. I was at the intersection when the Ford coming the other way turned (Continued on Page 8)

HOME HIT BY BOMB IN STRIKE

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 17.—UP—Bombing of a home, two unsuccessful attempts to dynamite a street car and a round of conferences between strike leaders and J. B. Lawson, member of the executive board of the International Carriers' union, marked developments of the street car strike today as it neared the end of the third month.

A bomb, tossed at a street car from a speeding car, partially wrecked a home in the French quarters, and shattered a score of windows in the block. Police said they had no clues to the identity of the men in the car.

A school boy found three sticks of dynamite under a car track as he was waiting to board a trolley for school. Five sticks of the explosives were removed from the tracks by a pedestrian later.

Lawson, sent here to investigate the conditions behind the strike and effect a settlement, refused to make a statement. He held a lengthy conference with a score of union and strike leaders.

OIL WITNESS FINED $60,000

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—(UP)—Harry M. Blackmer, former president of the West Refining company was found guilty of contempt of court and fined $60,000 today by Justice Frederick L. Siddons in District of Columbia supreme court for failing to appear as a witness in the Tea Pot Dome oil trial.

The magistrate ruled that a $30,000 fine and costs be imposed on Blackmer, on each of two contempt citations. Blackmer is now living in France.

The money will be taken from $100,000 seized by United States Marshall Edgar C. Snyder, which is now in a bank here. This money was seized under an act of congress permitting seizure of property in cases where the owner had fled the country to escape trial.

Albany Council Asks To Be Investigated

ALBANY, Sept. 17.—An investigation by the Alameda county grand jury of the affairs of the city council last night, following a demand made on City Clerk H. W. Brewer on Saturday that he surrender municipal books to a committee of the Albany Progress club for examination.

The council declared that it would welcome the investigation in order that "malicious slander" aimed at the city officials may be answered.

Brewer refused to allow the committee, representing annexation leaders, to have an alleged expert who accompanied the party to examine the books. Last night he reported the incident to the council.

By a unanimous vote, the council passed a resolution, calling upon the grand jury to audit the city books. Charges of mismanagement of city funds have been made by members of the Progress club in its fight to bring about annexation with Berkeley.

Pending final settlement of a suit now in the courts involving council action in refusing to call a special annexation election, the council last night voted to rescind a resolution meeting the annexation vote with the regular municipal election on April 14.

Santa Cruz Police Chief Reinstated

Rev. Frank A. Woten of Santa Cruz and former pastor of the First Christian church of Richmond, was temporarily blocked in his efforts to obtain the resignation of Mayor Fred W. Swanton of Santa Cruz by the action of the city council yesterday.

The mayor, who is at odds with the Good Government League headed by Rev. Woten, forestalled the action for his resignation on account of the Admission Day rioting by having the council pass a resolution that no matter could come before the meeting unless it had first been presented in writing to the city clerk.

Feeling between the two factions was heightened by the incident and by the mayor's reinstating Chief of Police W. J. Walker who was summarily dismissed from office Saturday by Councilman J. C. Geyer, head of the department of public safety.

The Good Government League, according to Rev. E. F. Wobber, another member, will press their efforts for the resignation of the council. In the event that the mayor refuses to resign, recall petitions will be circulated, he stated.

New Gas Company Joins Gas Battle

The Consumers' Gas company yesterday joined with the Western Natural Gas company in an application for a rehearing on the recent order of the state railroad commission giving the Pacific Gas and Electric company a virtual "monopoly" on the sale of natural gas in northern California.

The commission recently heard applications for the P. G. & E. and from the Western company for permission to construct the gas line. It decided in favor of the P. G. & E. and denied the Western Gas company a permit.

According to the Consumers' application, the company was formed to purchase the natural gas from the Western and sell it at retail throughout Alameda, Merced, Stanislaus and San Joaquin counties.

The Consumers' application took exception to the findings of the commission that the P. G. & E. supplies gas to 95 percent of the consumers in the territory affected.

According to the application of the new company, the territory they would serve would in no way compete with the P. G. & E. but would serve virgin territory.

As an example of this, the application states, Fresno consumers are now consuming less than half of one percent of the gas they would consume if new natural gas lines were run into that city.

13 KILLED AS MILLIONS LOST

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 17.—(UP)—Major forest fires which already had blazed thousands of acres of property with losses running into unestimated millions of dollars continued their menacing advance in Oregon, Washington and California tonight.

Reports from the three states indicated that a toll of 13 lives had been taken in Oregon and Washington and two in California.

Southern California's most serious blaze of the season, and the most destructive in Ventura county since 1917, was engaging 1000 men tonight. Advancing on a two mile front, the blaze already had burned over 10,000 acres, destroyed 100 oil derricks, caused damages estimated at $3,000,000 and was responsible for one death.

Towns Periled

The towns of Santa Paula and Ventura, as well as the rich Ventura oil fields, and Foster Park were within striking distance of the flames.

There were two other serious fires in southern California, one in the timber and brush lands 33 miles northwest of San Diego and the other in Santa Ana canyon, near the range and Riverside county line.

More than 250 men were fighting the fire near San Diego but seemed helpless as the fire moved (Continued on Page 5)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—UP—World war veterans who took advantage of an offer by California to buy homes on easy payments and have fallen more than two months behind on their accounts were receiving notices today that unless they can bring up the arrears within 35 days they will be dispossessed.

Approximately 37 percent of the veterans who took advantage of the proposition after 1921 were mailed notices that they must pay up in full or lose their property.

In 1921 the state approved an issue of $50,000,000 so that soldiers and sailors of the World war might obtain homes for a maximum of $7500.

REDS REJECT CHINESE NOTE

MOSCOW, Sept. 17.—(UP)—The foreign office today forwarded a note rejecting the proposals made in the recent notes from the Nanking government of China, for the settlement of the Russo-Chinese dispute over the Chinese Eastern railway.

The Chinese propositions, Moscow held, do not satisfy the minimum conditions of the Soviet government.

The note was delivered through the German embassy. It charged that the Nanking government nullified its own proposals and said that the Soviet government considers the reinstatement of a Russian manager for the Chinese Eastern railway as "an elementary prerequisite for a conference."

The note emphasizes the contention that "responsibility for further prolongation of the conflict rests entirely with the Nanking government."

The Soviet authorities also published a supplementary note received from Nanking September 13 in which an alternative proposal for the joint administration of the railroad by Russian and Chinese assistant managers, pending the outcome of negotiations, was made. Today's note likewise rejects this offer.

CARLSON TO SEEK PLANTS

Named by the directors of the chamber of commerce as special industrial emissary to the east, Thomas M. Carlson, city attorney will go on a tour this week with some of the biggest industrial leaders of the country.

Carlson thus becomes Richmond's "traveling salesman" in word which heretofore has been done by Fred D. Parr. The latter asked to be excused this time because of the pressure of other affairs, and Carlson consented to represent the city as "selling agent" in search of new industries.

The city attorney will take all of Parr's reports and his list of prospects which Parr and the industrial committee have been assembling since the last eastern tour was taken some months ago.

A special meeting of the directors had to be held yesterday because information had reached the industrial committee that some of the industrial prospects on the committee's list were planning early action in selecting a Pacific coast location. HUSKY ACTOR
JUGGLES
ROCKS

The next time a couple of futuristic citizens speed past you, looking backward anxiously as they go, don't call a cop—they may be erstwhile friends of Victor McLaglen.

Victor is trying to find them if he succeeds there may be another Hollywood murder which would be just too bad, as the quota is full now. Anyhow, the year goes like this:

In showing scenes for McLaglen's latest Fox film feature "Strong Boy," which is the feature attraction at the Fox-California theater tomorrow, the studio borrowed the whole Southern Pacific station for a background. Everything was set; the lights and cameras put in place, and Victor, tastefully attired in heavy-duty overalls, marched into the scene to smash a few baggages.

A trunk whirled offstage, propelled by the husky McLaglen. "Keep. Another followed even faster. Then Victor reached out a brawny paw, laid confident hold of a third trunk, and nearly twisted his wrist off. He grunted, stooped over, took another goodly grip and yanked. The McLaglen muscles creaked; perspiration beaded the McLaglen brow; the unmistakable McLaglen footprints embedded themselves in the concrete floor, but the trunk remained as firm as Rodrick Dhu.

Finally, a terrific yank, potent enough to haul a battleship off a sandbar. A snapping of locks. Out onto the floor rolled a cascade of baggage. Two muffled thuds shattered the silence, and as the bustling McLaglen gazed toward that direction, the eminent "jokesmiths" who sat that trunk there left the station in a hurry. So far the efforts of mutual friends toward peace have failed; Victor wants to meet the lion-loving gentlemen in person. Also on the bill is a Charlie Chase Talking Comedy.

BOSTON BANS
PRIZE PLAY

BOSTON, Sept. 17.—UP—Eugene O'Neill's Pulitzer prize play "Strange Interlude" was banned from production in any Boston theater on order issued today by Mayor Nichols.

The play, referred to as "O'Neill's Masterpiece," scheduled to open in this city on Sept. 30 at the Hollis Street theater, was branded "unfit for the public to witness" by Boston's mayor.

He said the play was in "arbitrary disregard of public opinion" and would not be permitted to be produced in this city under any circumstances.

An explanation of the mayor's action was lacking other than he thought it was "not a decent spectacle for the public to witness."

The direct action of the banning was not done by the mayor but by City Censor John M. Casey who said he had not witnessed the play during its long run in New York but that he was "merely carrying out orders of the mayor."

The Theater Guild of New York sponsors of the play were seeking to have the ban lifted as several thousand tickets already have been reserved by subscribers totaling about $40,000. This play was advertised on bill boards for more than six months in Boston.

"Strange Interlude" was awarded the American Pulitzer prize in 1928 as "the American play performed in New York best representing the education, value and power of the stage in raising the standards of good morals, good taste and good manners."

It played to capacity houses in New York for several months.

U. S. Judgment
Halted Here
By Injunction

An injunction halted the execution of a federal judgment against Jack Martin, owner of a second-hand furniture store at 329 Macdonald avenue yesterday. The injunction was issued by Federal Judge Harold Louderback of San Francisco.

Sale of property had been set for today, but Martin, through Attorney Charles H. Brennan of San Francisco, is seeking to have the judgment set aside by the court on the ground that the charges against the late Frank Starkey, for whom Martin acted as bondsman, had been dismissed and that the defendant in the case is dead.

Federal attorneys in San Francisco more than a year ago found in old records a civil suit pending against Martin in the forfeiture of a bond for $1000 given as a guarantee for the appearance of Starkey in federal court on a liquor charge. True civil suit was taken into court and a default was obtained.

Martin had thought for three years that the suit to foreclose on the bond had been dismissed, as had been promises, he claims, by federal attorneys, inasmuch as the charges against Starkey had been dismissed and Starkey had died.

Martin declares that he received no notice of the judgment until recently, when a U. S. marshal attached his property and bank account here.

OLD FAVORITE
GIVEN LIFE
BY SCREEN

"Madame X," perhaps the stage's greatest drama of mother love and incidentally, credited with being the first "courtroom drama" in history, has come to the talking screen, a rejuvenated and certainly much more interesting drama than in its older form.

Metro Goldwyn Mayer's all-talking version of the famous old play, with Ruth Chatterton in the title role and Lionel Barrymore as the director, presents an older drama in a very glamorous new dress. It retains all the drama that made the original practically a classic of the stage, but it presents it in the new, swiftly moving structure of the screen. It is, literally, a blend between the style of the silent drama and the stage—its tempo that of the silent picture with its rapid action and kaleidoscopic changes of locale. The dialogue, too, is different—shortened and concentrated to match the action. It is in effect a concentrated essence of drama.

Ruth Chatterton, as the ill-fated heroine is superb. Rising to the heights of dramatic emotion and the depths of despair by turn she gives a performance that is literally a revelation as to what can be done by an artist with this new medium of the screen, and Lionel Barrymore's deft direction of every scene is echoed in the subtle little influences that fairly grip the audience.

This picture closes its engagement tonight at the Fox-California theater.

CHEERS, JEERS AT STRIKE FUNERAL

DESSEMER CITY, N. C., Sept. 17.—(U.P.)—Amid jeers from anti-unionists and shouts of "murder" from labor organizers, Mrs. Ella May Wiggins, 35 year old widow and textile striker, was buried here today.

The funeral procession was pathetic and the services at the grave dramatic. After many delays, however, the woman who was shot to death while enroute to a strikers' rally at Gastonia was buried in a small isolated cemetery.

A pouring rain marred the ceremonies, which labor organizers had hoped to turn into a monster demonstration against working conditions in North Carolina textile district.

Thousands Present
The funeral was to start at 10 o'clock. Four hours before the time, hundreds of union sympathizers gathered in the vicinity of the house where the body had been since the shooting and stood in a pouring rain.

When the procession passed the American mills, a few workers who have resisted efforts to organize them left their spindles and peered. The one day strike of mill workers, called by union leaders for the funeral demonstration, failed to materialize.

Five Children Attend
The funeral stopped in the middle of the bleak cemetery. Rain drenched those who had gathered there. The five small children of Mrs. Wiggins were helped from an automobile. They were at the head of the grave, weeping.

Dewey Martin, a Jonesboro, Ga., student, stepped forward. Dramatically he pointed to the cheap grey casket. "We have gathered here for a sad purpose," he said. "To say goodbye to our sister, Ella May, who was a loyal worker of our union. She gave her life for the betterment of her fellow workers. We'll take care of them," he concluded, pointing to the Wiggins children.

Explorer Gives Illustrated Talk At High School

Dr. Monson has explored in many of the wilder regions of the world, but his special subject is Indians and their country. He is the discoverer of several ancient cliff dwellings. This lecture was the first of a series planned for the term by the faculty entertainment committee.

ENTIRE COAST MENACED BY FLAMES

ed forward, fanned by hot desert winds from the Imperial valley section.

In northern California, the Mendocino county fires were semi-controlled and the town of Ukiah saved from destruction.

Hundreds of Fires
While there were hundreds of little fires in the Pacific northwest the three major blazes were near Estacada, Ore., Yacolt, Wash., and Stevenson, Wash.

At Stevenson, the situation was critical late today when flames from the north and the west reached a point half a mile from the little town of 750 residents.

Power was off and communications wires were down. The town was dark from smoke.

Wind Saves Towns
Saving wind changes early today averted possible destruction of Estacada and Yacolt. After blazing since Aug. 4, the Yacolt fire was turned away from the town. The Estacada fire was put under semi-control as the wind died down.

The hazard at Stevenson was made more serious by little fires between that place and Washougal, 50 miles further down the Columbia river. It was feared the fire at the two points might be joined.

Behind the fires in all three states farm homes, valuable timber, mills, animal life, oil equipment and expensive summer homes were destroyed. Farmers and oil workers were homeless.

While the loss in the Ventura-Santa Paula region in southern California was estimated at $3,000,000, no total of the damage in the Pacific northwest was available.

Killed In Crash
The first death in the Ventura when Charles Deen, 25, United fire area was listed this afternoon. States Forest Service worker, died of injuries suffered when his motorcycle crashed into a truck while he was on a fire call.

The Ventura fire was being fought in three places tonight. At

POPE SCORED BY ITALIAN PAPER

ROME, Sept. 17.—(U.P.)—The newspaper Popolo Di Roma today joined the Giornal Di Italia in critical answer to the speech of Pope Pius delivered to the Catholic Youth association and to Catholic youth's chaplains in which the Pope answered Premier Mussolini's pronouncement that Catholics were watching the clergy and Catholic forces to determine their attitude on Fascism.

"How long till this sterile, acrid controversy which is likely to annul the pacification of church and state last?" the Popolo Di Roma asked.

"Incredible as it may seem, the controversy has been reopened by the very head of Catholicism just when it virtually had died down."

"The highest authority pronounced words unbecoming to its prestige and falling into exaggerations far from the truth: his himself and offends itself before hitting or injuring the target against which the arrows are directed."

"The Pope is losing his way in a controversial labyrinth fitting a provincial newspaper."

Fatty Arbuckle
Sued For Divorce
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 17.—(U.P.)—Rosemary "Patty" Arbuckle, former film comedian, was sued for divorce a second time today by his wife, Doris Arbuckle.

Her first suit has been pending for the last year. In the complaint today, Mrs. Arbuckle charged that her husband deserted her on May 26, 1928, after previously being guilty of cruelty and continual fault finding. She indicated a property settlement had been made.

In the previous action, which has not been dismissed, Mrs. Arbuckle accused the comedian of becoming intoxicated and grabbing another woman violently. Mrs. Arbuckle said that when she interfered her husband slapped her.

PREPARING TO EVACUATE TOWN
STEVENS, Wash., Sept. 17.—(U.P.)—Men, women and children of Stevenson tonight prepared to evacuate as a raging forest fire licked at the town's boundaries.

The blaze, swept by a strong westerly wind, has wiped out the community of Greenleaf and a saw mill at that place.

The Ryan mill here was ablaze. An appeal was sent to Hood River, Ore., on the Columbia for fire fighting apparatus.

Furniture lined the streets as the flames slowly crept in on the town. The populace in preparation to leave the town should no aid reach them to help check the flaming demon.

Railroad travel on the north bank has been closed. The situation was made more serious with the heavy smoke bill hanging over the town. If a fire breaks out in the town residents said it would be hard to find until it became menacing because of the smoke.

ADDITIONAL MEN SENT TO WATERSHED
SAN DIEGO, Sept. 17.—(U.P.)—As a seething forest fire continued its threat against San Diego's watershed tonight, 55 additional men were sent to the front, 33 miles northwest of here to aid the 200 already there.

The flames were spreading up mountain sides toward the Mesa Grande country after sweeping over all of the mountains north-west of Ramona.

When the fire made its way unchecked into Cleveland canyon and began to blaze its way up the mountain sides, it was feared that all of the cottages in the canyon had been destroyed.

Animals Burned
While San Diego was facing the loss of its entire watershed, hundreds of cattle, poultry and ranch buildings lay charred in the wake of the roaring blaze. Hot desert winds from the Imperial valley section further handicapped fire fighters. Huge billows of smoke swept down toward the coast.

Forest rangers under L. H. Anderson were in charge of the fight. They believed that only a change in weather would permit them to control the fire.

MOB LEADERS ARRAIGNED IN COURT

OWENSBORO, Ky., Sept. 17.—(U.P.)—Seven ring leaders of a mob which attempted to preserve the traditional whiskey distilling business in Kentucky's hills by severely beating three federal agents and releasing their prisoners were arraigned here today.

The seven were Kenneth Ashby, Joe Mahan, Talmadge E. H. Carl, Quisberry, John Tucker and William and Pascal Powell. They were held under $5000 bond each for trial Sept. 20.

Five others including two women and the released prisoners, Robert Mason and Owen Boone, also were held on liquor law charges.

The mob of about 150 persons formed in Central City, nearby, yesterday when Paul W. Sullivan, Louisville dry agent, and two undercover agents, arrested Mason and Boone.

The agents, ignoring the threatening mob loaded their prisoners in an automobile and attempted to drive off. The mob surrounded their car, however, dragged the agents from it, beat them severely, released the prisoners after wrecking the automobile.

Sullivan and his two assistants, John Duffer, Owensboro, and John Brown, Reynolds Station, were so seriously beaten that they had to have medical attention.

Police announced they would make an immediate state and county cleanup of all known liquor law violators as reprisal for the mobbing.

Juror Objects To Own Hanging

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sept. 17.—(U.P.)—There are ways of looking at this matter of capital punishment in the opinion of a juror, examined today in the trial of Earl Francis Peacock, charged with murdering his wife.

The juror, examined today in the trial of Earl Francis Peacock, charged with murdering his wife. The juror, examined today in the trial of Earl Francis Peacock, charged with murdering his wife.

"No, I go no objections," the juror replied, then added hesitantly, "that is—no objection except in my own case."

Tom Loughran Host To Orphans

HARVEY'S LAKE, Pa. Sept. 17.—One hundred and ten orphans were the guests of Tommy Loughran at his training camp here today. The children came from the St. Stanislaus orphanage at Nanticoke, to watch him train for his bout with Jack Sharkey in New York.

Loughran ran through his regular routine and announced a day of rest Wednesday.

Aged Man To Face Court In Stabbing

MARTINEZ, Sept. 16.—A complaint was to be filed today against Frank Galligan, 72, charging him with assault with a deadly weapon as the result of the stabbing of Thomas Meenan, 76, a fellow inmate of the county hospital.

Each of the men blames the other for the stabbing. Galligan is said to have stabbed Meenan over the heart with a pocket knife as a climax to a series of quarrels between the two men.

Conflicting stories are given as the cause of the quarrel. Meenan claims that Galligan was disturbing another inmate, Patrick Hogan, a sufferer from a nervous ailment, and that the row started when he, Meenan, objected.

Galligan claims that Meenan struck him in the face after pushing him across a bed and that the stabbing was in self defense. Hospital attendants say that the two men have had a series of quarrels.

Victim Held As Material Witness In Stabbing Case

Bernardino Villallegas, who named and caused the arrest of Juan Villagomes as his attacker, was released from the county hospital yesterday and taken to the county jail where he is being held as a material witness against Villagomes pending charges that are to be placed against the latter.

Villallegas alleges that Villagomes stabbed him on the back of the neck during the course of a quarrel. Villagomes is in the city jail here, awaiting filing of charges.

Three Births Recorded Here

Three births were recorded yesterday with the Richmond City Health department. They are: Melva Jean Hooker, born Sept. 11, to the wife of N. V. Holbrook, Berkeley.

S. O. To Offer Prize For Essays

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16.—(U.P.)—Best essays on how the erection of "objectionable advertising signs" along highways can be prevented and why such action should be taken will receive approximately $3000 in prizes in a contest announced by the Standard Oil company of California for all residents of the Pacific Coast here today.

SLAYER KEEPS NOTES ON TRIAL

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sept. 17.—P. Slick-haired young Earl Francis Peacock, who met Dorothy Hinzelman when he was 14, married her when he was 21 and choked her to death a year later, calmly jotted notes on a scratch pad in Westchester county court house here today while attorneys continued the boring grind of trying to find 12 unbiased and unprejudiced men to try him on a first degree murder charge.

Selection of the jury finally was completed and Wednesday morning, when Supreme Court Justice Tompkins convenes court, District Attorney Frank H. Coyne will start unraveling the sordid story of the killing.

The defense will rely almost wholly on its contention that Peacock killed his 20-year-old bride in a moment of passionate anger, and that in the absence of premeditation, the jury cannot legally send the defendant to his death.

District Attorney Coyne, however, is prepared to paint a lurid story of Peacock's malice and deliberation at the time of the killing. No man could have been calmer, Coyne will say, than was the 22 year old radio expert when he choked his wife to death on their first anniversary of their wedding.

Parents Aid In Hunt For Girls

Parents of Lois Randolph, 16, and Louise Pummil, 15, missing San Pablo girls, were aiding police yesterday in searching for the girls, who have been missing since Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Randolph, who operate an auto camp at San Pablo and Mr. and Mrs. C. Pummil, parents of the two missing girls, are leading every effort in the state wide search.

The girls disappeared after they had received street car fare to visit an aunt in Berkeley.

LEADERS IN ELK LEAGUE TO BE DECIDED

Richmond, and Alameda Elks baseball teams will decide who is to lead the northern California Elks league in an important game to be played Sunday.

The contest will be held at the Lincoln park, Alameda, at 2:30 o'clock, according to George Shaw, manager of the local aggregation. Richmond and Alameda are tied for first place in the league, both teams having won four games and lost two. San Francisco is next with three wins and five defeats while Oakland holds third place with two victories and five defeats.

Roy Bliss or Dutch Kozler will be on the mound for the local Elks while either Jensen or Bertout will do the pitching.

San Francisco has a record of 10 wins and 10 losses. After the Richmond game, the Elks will play the Alameda team. If this postponed game will effect the league standing in any way, it will be played; but if it doesn't, it will not be played.

From all appearances the contest for first place appears to be between Richmond and Alameda. Both cities have first class teams with some of the "old time stars" who have made their debut in big league circles.

Shaw expressed confidence yesterday that the local Elks will come through at the head of the league.

The winners of the northern league will then meet the winners of the southern California league for the state championship according to preliminary plans.

This has been the custom followed for many years and it is expected that the same program will be followed this year.

Plans for the championship game will probably be discussed at the next meeting of the baseball committee of the California Elks association.

SHARKEY READY FOR LOUGHRAN

ORANEBURG, N. Y., Sept. 17.—UP—Jack Sharkey pounded two sparring partners mercilessly today as he continued his preparations for the fight with Tommy Loughran at New York Sept. 26.

After having Jack Saunders near a knockout in a two round sparring contest, Sharkey took the measure of Jack Gagnon in a minute and a half of the second round when the work was halted with Gagnon on the ropes. Sharkey plans to work Wednesday and declare a holiday next Thursday.

City Basketball League Meeting Set For Friday

Formation of the 1929-30 Richmond basketball league, arranging of a schedule and formation of rules for the league season will be discussed at a meeting Friday night at 7:30 o'clock in the Roosevelt Junior high school gymnasium, according to an announcement made yesterday by W. L. "Doc" Sawright, city recreational director.

Sawright has acted as manager of the league for the past several years and is taking an active part in arranging the new schedule.

Those interested in entering a team in the league have been asked by Sawright to be present Friday night.

It is probable that the league will be formed in two divisions this year, with the winner of the first division's schedule meeting the winners of the second division.

The Ben Matles squad, champions of last year's league, the Rogers, who were runners-up for the title, McTackens and Santa Fe teams will probably enter teams in the new league.

Flyweights To Go 10 Rounds On Vallejo Card

VALLEJO, Sept. 17.—Two of the cleverest flyweights on the west coast are appearing in the 10 round main event of the boxing show here Thursday evening when Midget Mike Dundee meets Sergio Radam, Filipino.

This is Dundee's second fight on the Pacific Coast since his western invasion a month ago. In his first fight on the coast, he fought 10 rounds to a draw with Ernie Hood in Los Angeles. Although this fight was called a draw, ringsiders believed that Dundee earned the decision by his early round knockdowns.

Two of Dundee's best fights were in the east where he fought six rounds to a draw with Tony Canzonetti and 10 rounds to a draw with Carl Tremaine. He also won a 10 round decision over Quina Lee in Birmingham.

Radam is recognized as one of the best Filipino boxers to come from Manila in recent months. Radam is being managed by Frino Bocar, dean of the Filipino managers. Radam has appeared here several times and has yet to put up a poor exhibition.

Promoter Vic Berry has lined up five good preliminary bouts to support the main attraction.

'Dick' Millicevich Bags Buck In North

Millicevich is on a leave of absence, visiting relatives and friends in the north.

TENNIS CLUB PLANNED AT SCHOOLS

Organization of an elementary school tennis club is planned by Mrs. Ruth Hesbol Healy, director of athletics in Richmond grammar schools.

Mrs. Healy stated yesterday that much interest has been aroused in elementary schools in tennis this year and more than 75 boys and girls have signified their intentions of receiving coaching in this sport.

It is planned to hold a tournament later in the season to decide the championship of the elementary club, as soon as it is organized.

Cups and banners will probably be awarded to the winners of the tournaments.

One section of the club will practice at the city hall courts while the other section organized at the Washington grammar school, will use the Point Richmond courts.

The club will hold its get-together meeting at the proposed annual tournament.

REDS, STARS LOSE, OAKS WIN

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—When Frank Crosetti, young shortstop for the San Francisco Seals hit a home run with two men on bases in the ninth inning today, he sent his team into a tie with the Missions for second place, with the difference between the league leading Hollywood Stars having been increased by one game. The Seals defeated the Missions eight to six.

Hollywood was defeated by the Angels, nine to eight, when Los Angeles made two runs in the last of the ninth.

Portland broke a tie in the twelfth inning to defeat the Sacramento Senators six to five.

By scoring five runs in the first seven innings, the Oaks defeated Seattle five to one. Lou McEvoy held the Indians to six scattered hits.

Gualdoni To Be Honored

Bill Gualdoni, former catcher for the San Pablo baseball club, will be honored when he returns to San Pablo's ranks to play in the game with Rodeo next Sunday. Gualdoni has been catching for the Tuscon club in the Arizona league during the spring and summer. It is rumored that he will be recalled by the Hollywood club for spring training next year.

Johnny Babich will hurl for the San Pabians in Sunday's game. He has been pitching fast ball in recent games. Last Sunday he pitched a three hit game against the Eastbay Tigers.

FANS KEPT IN SUSPENSE BY CUBS

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—UP—Those Cubs right now are responsible for more suspense than Chicago has known in years.

Needing only one victory to clinch the National league championship, Joe McCarthy and his men dropped a double header today to the Brooklyn Robins, and in so doing they kept the baseball interest at the high peak which it reached when it first became evident that they would participate in the World's Series.

The last two days of play in the National league has been anything but gratifying to Chicago fans. Pittsburgh, the second place club, has won three games and the Cubs, kept idle by rain yesterday, dropped the double header today.

That is surprising play all around. The Pirates did not figure to come from behind and win three games from the Phillies and more certain than that the Cubs did not figure to lose a double header to Brooklyn today, even though Dazzy Vance did oppose them.

True to their fighting spirit the Cubs sent the home-town hopes skyward when they overcame a six run lead in the first game. With the "great dazzer" pitching it seemed that Brooklyn would coast to a victory but the Cubs hitters fell on Dazzy for three runs in the fourth inning and four in the fifth to take a 7 to 6 lead. However, the Robins scored two in the ninth and won the ball game.

The same type of play applied at Pittsburgh. The Philadelphia Athletics got off to a four run lead in the first inning and scored another in the fifth while the Pirates were getting three in the fourth. Then the men of the Smokey City put on an eight run rally in the ninth which kept them mathematically still in the running for the title.

More than 40 school girls under the age of 15 are entered in the Edith Tough Tennis tournament being sponsored by Mrs. Ruth Healy, director of athletics in the elementary schools here.

More than six weeks will be taken in preliminary play before the semi-finals and finals are played, Mrs. Healy stated yesterday.

Games are being played at the city hall courts on Nevins avenue. A new record for the number of pupils entered in the Edith Tough cup matches was made this year, Mrs. Healy stated.

Cubs Fail To Cinch Flag In National Race

By UNITED PRESS

National League:

The National league Tuesday concerned itself only with checking the efforts of Chicago to clinch the 1929 pennant. Three games were played, any one of which might have decided the issue and in each case the verdict went against the Cubs.

First Brooklyn rallied in the ninth inning of the first game at Chicago to score two runs and win, 8 to 7. Then Pittsburgh rallied with eight runs in the seventh inning to defeat Philadelphia 11 to 7. Finally the Cubs succeeded in losing their second game to Brooklyn, 9 to 6, and were forced to wait at least another 24 hours for the pleasure of a mathematical victory.

Kiki Cuyler almost won the first for Chicago when he hit a home run with the bases full. Babe Herman duplicated the feat for Brooklyn; in the second the blow deciding the game.

American League:

Only two games were played in the American league Tuesday, rain halting four others.

In the first the Boston Red Sox defeated Chicago, 6 to 4, and the second went to the Washington Senators who defeated Detroit, 4 to 1. Washington held a 3-0 lead over Detroit when the second game was rained out in the second inning.

A double header between St. Louis and the Athletics at Philadelphia, and a single game between Cleveland and the Yankees at New York were rained out.

GRID PRACTICE OF BRONCOS OPEN

SANTA CLARA, Sept. 17.—Clipper Smith, coach, has adopted an open door policy of football practice at the University of Santa Clara.

All of the football practices for the early season, at least, will be open to the public. What is more, Clipper Smith has invited, even urged, football fans everywhere to visit the campus and watch his band of broncos do their practicing.

Smith's policy forms a departure in the training program at Santa Clara. Not since the old Rugby days, when Santa Clara produced championship teams, has the public been permitted to walk unrestricted into the practice field.

Advised of Smith's policy, many alumni within the last few days have occupied seats in the stands to watch the boys drill in the Notre Dame shift, ball passing and trick play. There has been much to interest the spectators in these workouts. Smith and his assistants, Lawrence Shaw and George Barst, are sticklers for detail. With "seemingly tireless patience, they have put the squad of nearly 100 varsity and freshmen players through the "one, two, three" of the shift.

Using the words of the players themselves, Smith and his assistants are "tough" in the workouts. They have developed a sort of Henry Ford program of efficiency so that from the moment a man steps into the field, he has something to do every minute until the coaches shout through the megaphones: "Go to the dressing room."

Fields, Jones Bout Postponed

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—UP—Postponement of a 10 round non-title bout between Jackie Fields, welterweight champion, and Gorilla Jones of Memphis was ordered today when an infection in Fields' left arm became so bad it would prevent him from boxing next Monday night.

The match will be staged about the middle of October, promoters announced. It was believed the injury would be cured before Oct. 3 when the champion is scheduled to meet Vince Dundee in Chicago.

FARM LAUDED BY RISING PITCHER

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—UP—Milking cows and throwing stones at snakes figured prominently in the development of Wesley Ferrell, young Cleveland right-hander who is the best rookie pitcher of the year.

Raised on his father's dairy farm at Guilford, N. C., young Ferrell began milking cows at the age of 10. Now at 21 he finds that the task he disliked as a kid has helped him blossom almost overnight into the greatest pitcher prospect of the major league season.

"Gee, how I hated to get up at daybreak to milk those cows," Ferrell told the United Press in an interview today. "But by milking 8 to 10 cows every morning I developed the muscles in my fingers and now I can grip a baseball and make it do almost anything I want to."

"My fast ball would never have been as good as it is if I hadn't developed my finger muscles by milking cows. I learned control by throwing rocks at snakes, birds and rabbits."

Playing his second year of professional baseball, Ferrell has won 19 games and lost 9 in the American league which places him third only to Grove and Earnshaw of the Philadelphia Athletics in pitchers who have participated in 15 or more games.

The Indians picked up Ferrell for almost a song in the spring of 1927 when Scout Bill Rapp went to Oak Ridge Military academy to look over John White, another young pitcher.

"When I reported to the Indians this spring I thought I would be lucky to win 6 or 8 games," Ferrell said. "I had no idea I would get a chance to take a regular turn in the box."

Only games.

Strength Regained
Woodland, Cal., Mar. 28, 1928.
Several months ago I strained my back. It was very painful and got worse every day. My general health was affected and I became so weak that I could scarcely walk. I was recommended to take the Fong Wan Herbs. After the first three weeks of the treatment I had gained seven pounds in weight. My health is now entirely restored, my back is well and I am strong again. I take pleasure in endorsing the wonderful herbs of Fong Wan. R. F. D. 1, Box 102, Woodland, Cal. MAIL PILOT DIES IN CRASH

MERIDEN Conn., Sept. 17.—(AP)—Henry Tallman, pilot of the Boston-New York airmail liner was instantly killed near here to night when his plane crashed into the side of Mount Lamentation.

The crash occurred in a heavy fog, soon after he had taken off from the Hartford airport where he landed. The plane left Boston airport at 6:15 p. m. with a large consignment of mail for New York and western cities.

The ship burst into flames soon after the crash and more than 500 pounds of mail, including several pieces of registered matter, was destroyed.

Tallman's body was discovered 15 feet from the wreckage burned almost beyond recognition. He was apparently thrown clear after the explosion of gasoline.

pilots. These "chief pilots" will be assisted by other "pilots." A contest will be held between the teams to see which can "fly highest."

W. G. McMoran, state Y. M. C. A. director will assist in the campaign and Reynold Carlson, secretary of the "Y" will lend his able assistance.

Acting on the executive committee for the drive are E. B. Bull, Henry A. Johnston, Isaac Lester, Fred D. Farr, Charles S. Renwick, Percy M. Sanford, E. L. Scott, F. C. Shallenberger and Aubrey Wilson.

More than 300 boys and young men had been members of the various clubs sponsored by the "Y" during the past year. The building has been used by a large number and the aggregate attendance at the gymnasium was more than 11,000.

One day each week has been reserved at the building for the exclusive use of the girls and young women. Two girls' clubs under volunteer leaders are functioning at the present time. More than 40 volunteer leaders are functioning at the present time.

More than 40 volunteer leaders, young men and older boys, have helped in the conducting of clubs and supervising of the activities in the building.

The money collected during the campaign will be used to maintain the local building, pay salaries and promote work for boys and young men in the community. The money received will be spent almost entirely here in Richmond.

CARLSON TO SEEK PLANTS

representative there to confer with them and present Richmond's advantages. The names of these are to be kept confidential pending the outcome of negotiations. It was said by George N. Rooker, chairman of the industrial committee.

Carlson is to take in a wide sweep of territory through the middle west and far east, visiting a dozen cities and interviewing probably a score of executives placing Richmond's story before them. He will leave tomorrow and will return when his mission is complete, but at all events in time for the Oct. 12 dedication ceremony at the Parr Richmond terminal where he is to act as toastmaster.

The recommendation for the chamber to finance his eastern tour was made by C. S. Renwick of the finance committee at yesterday's meeting.

Lost For Year

In that structure for the library. Recommendations that all county and local peace officers be more vigilant in apprehending liquor vendors, were made by the jury. The report declared that the jury had found evidence of a great deal of curbside and automobile peddling of intoxication liquor in connection with public dances.

Supervisors Lauded

Recommendations are made that a doctor be placed in charge of the county hospital, that the superintendent be assigned to manage buildings and grounds, that a matron be employed to supervise the nurses and that a county tubercular hospital be provided. With the exception of the latter recommendation, all have already been placed in effect.

The board of supervisors were lauded in the report for their aid in maintenance of the Sunshine Health camp and recommends continuance of financial support to the "fullest extent possible."

Schools of Contra Costa county are declared to be in good condition and well managed. The report points out, however, that three high schools, Concord, Antioch and Martinez are seriously overcrowded and recommends that Antioch build a new high school building, be added to the Concord school and that Martinez enter upon a well considered plan of school construction in order to relieve present congestion.

School District Urged

Creation of a union high school district of Highland, Tassajara, Green Valley, Alamo, San Ramon and Danville grammar school is recommended and teachers are urged to teach safety rules to students.

Changes in bookkeeping system of the county horticultural commissioner are recommended and the report urges the employment of an additional man to supervise squirrel eradication work.

The report recommends that when insurance premiums are paid by the county, the names of the agent receiving the premiums together with the amounts be published.

The report also discloses that ranches of the Clayton valley appealed to the jury for aid in curbing the escape of cement dust from the Cowell Cement company's plant but that the jury found that it is a matter outside its province and had once been made the subject of litigation in which the cement company was victorious.

Funeral Tolls Hit

Mention is made in the report of the grand jury, advising the American Toll Bridge company that it cannot collect tolls from funeral corteges, an investigation being made on the complaint of Paul Dunlap of Richmond.

Strict supervision over distribution of supplies and parts from the county garage is recommended and reports are given of accusations and indictments being returned against Constable J. J. Fox of Crockett and Justice of the Peace A. H. MacKinnon of El Cerrito.

MRS. PANTAGES DENIES RUM CHARGES

left. All I know is that we came together."

Denies Swearing

Tears filled Mrs. Pantages' eyes as she continued. "When the Ford started to turn left, oh I tried so hard to get by it. I pulled my steering wheel as hard as I could."

Under cross examination by Deputy District Attorney James P. Costello, Mrs. Pantages said she remembered Henry Lee, a defense witness, as the driver of the car that "honked" on her right and forced her toward the left. She denied she knew him personally or ever had talked with him.

She denied also that she had cursed Harry Lee during a state's witness, at another intersection a few minutes before the crash when, as he testified, her car stalled and he offered help. Mrs. Pantages said her car had not stalled.

Pastor Called

Rev. R. P. Shuler, who broadcast a radio talk Sunday night in which he "pronounced" a "hung" jury and intimated that it was "hung" even before evidence was started, was called to the stand again today. He said he did not remember saying in his talk that the defense knew beforehand the name of the final jurymen called to the box. The Los Angeles county grand jury may investigate his radio comments.

In court yesterday Rev. Shuler explained that what he had meant was that Ira Gay, the last juror selected, would "hang" the jury because of his mental attitude toward women and liquor.

The jury was sent from the courtroom late today as the defense attorneys opened a fight to introduce testimony that Rooker's table had been operated against his will.

Oregon State Eleven Loses Two Lettermen

CORVALLIS, Ore., Sept. 17.—Loss of two star lettermen from the Oregon State football lineup has completely disrupted all preliminary plans for Coach Schissler.

First came word from Los Angeles that Russell Striff, star end for the last two years would not be in condition to report for training. Then Schissler was informed that Fred Schell, letterman tackle for two years, will be unable to play this year because he has not sufficiently regained strength after a severe attack of blood poisoning.

Both veterans were considered strong points on the Orange line, and their loss will result in considerable rebuilding of the forward wall.

Carl Metten, quarter, is considered a likely candidate for Striff's old post at right end, and Chuck Stout, another two-year letterman may be made over from a guard to fill Schell's shoes.

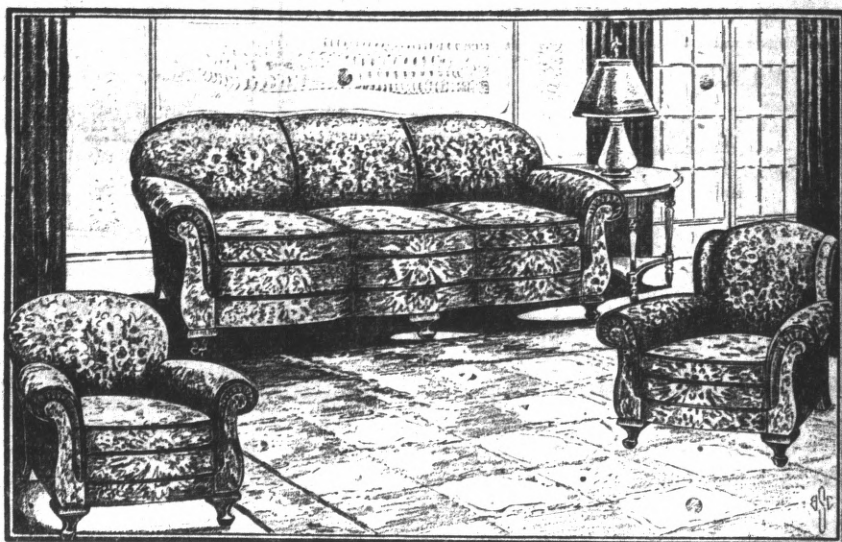

Oregon State opens the season with Willamette here on Sept. 21.
